

Matías Rabago Wissinger

matias.wissinger@kellogg.northwestern.edu - Portfolio: <https://matiaswiss.github.io/>

EDUCATION

Gonzaga University, Spokane, WA 2020 - 2024

B.A. in Business Administration (Honors)

Individualized Study in Organizational Behavior, Minor: Hogan Entrepreneurial Leadership Program

GPA: 3.95/4.00; Summa Cum Laude

Honors Thesis: Mindfulness Matters: Fostering Conflict Resilient Teams

Doctoral-Level Coursework Audited at Northwestern Kellogg:

MORS-526: Micro-Organizational Research Methods (William Brady, Ph.D.)

Relevant Undergraduate Coursework:

Substantive: I/O Psychology, Scientific Principles of Psychology, Cross-Cultural Psychology, Intercultural Management, Strategic Leadership, Group Research Topics in Psychology

Quantitative: Programming Techniques, Database Systems, Business Computing, Statistics, Management Information Systems, Mathematical Analysis-Business

AWARDS & SOCIETIES

Leaders Scholar, Gonzaga University 2020

Regents Scholar, Gonzaga University 2021

Newman Scholar, Gonzaga University Honors Program 2021

Hogan Entrepreneurial Leadership Scholar, Gonzaga University SBA 2021

Presidential Scholar, Institute for American Universities, Madrid 2023

President's List Honors, Gonzaga University SBA 2020–2024

Member, Alpha Sigma Nu 2023

Member, Beta Gamma Sigma 2023

Alma and Gill Centioli Scholar, Gonzaga University SBA 2024

Member, The PhD Project 2025

Member, The Society for Personality and Social Psychology 2025

RESEARCH INTERESTS & SKILLS

Conversation, Conflict Management, Social Perception, Intergroup Dynamics, Emotions, Judgment & Decision-Making, Identity Expression

Technical: R, SPSS, Python, Qualtrics, JavaScript/HTML, GitHub, Amazon AWS, Zotero, Prolific, CloudResearch, SONA, NLP, Lexical Suite, statistical methods & packages

Related Training: CITI IRB Training, RCR course for Graduate Students and Postdocs

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Predoctoral Research Fellow

July 2024 - Present

Northwestern Kellogg School of Management, Evanston, IL

PIs: Jacob Teeny, Ph.D. & Chethana Achar, Ph.D.

Advisor: Ginger Lee Jacobson, Ph.D.

- Develop studies investigating (1) how persuasive messages influence attitudes, (2) how exposure to AI-generated content affects creative self-confidence through social comparison, and (3) how identity signaling shapes perception and decision-making
- Perform statistical analyses in SPSS and R incorporating specialized macros like PROCESS, create scientific figures, and program experimental tasks in Python/JavaScript
- Author and share reproducible code on OSF, manage lab experiments, conduct replication checks, and oversee cross-platform study administration
- Conduct large-scale literature reviews (manual and API-based) on political polarization, use Zotero to organize 3,000+ citations, and train undergraduate RAs in systematic review methods

- Design Qualtrics surveys for thousands of participants across multiple studies, draft IRBs, and manage preregistrations

Research Assistant

Sep 2023 - May 2024

Social Interdependence Lab, Gonzaga University Department of Psychology

PI: Adam Stivers, Ph.D.

- Contributed to the development of an experimental task exploring how cognitive heuristics — such as anchoring, availability bias, and representativeness—shape economic decision-making
- Supported data collection for a gamified study on cooperation and control orientations
- Managed lab operations, trained research assistants, maintained materials, and coordinated communication among team members

Honors Thesis Student

Jan 2023 - May 2024

Gonzaga University School of Business Administration

Advisor: Rebecca Bull Schaefer, Ph.D.

- Authored Mindfulness Matters: Fostering Conflict-Resilient Teams, receiving highest mark
- Implemented an original month-long mindfulness intervention and examined its effects on workplace conflict and team effectiveness
- Evaluated conflict resilience and team dynamics pre- and post-intervention

CEE Civic/Wolff Fellow

Fall 2022 - Spring 2023

Gonzaga University Center for Community Engagement

Partner Organization: The ZoNE, Spokane WA

Advisor: Jene Ray

- Selected for a research and service initiative strengthening community–university partnerships on housing, food insecurity, and after-school care in Spokane’s Hillyard neighborhood
- Analyzed community survey data and conducted needs assessments for BHT grant applications

RESEARCH PRESENTATIONS

Wissinger, M. & Teeny, J.D. (2025) Relational Costs of Goal-Directed Listening in Workplace Conversations. Submitted for presentation at the Society for Personality and Social Psychology, Chicago, IL. (2026)

Wissinger, M. (2024) Mindfulness Matters: Fostering Conflict Resilient Teams. Presented at the Spokane Intercollegiate Research Conference (Spokane, WA)

Wissinger, M. (2024) Mindfulness Matters: Fostering Conflict Resilient Teams. Presented at the Honors Program Student Research Symposium (Spokane, WA)

Wissinger, M. (2023) Growing Community Together: Food, Housing, and Social Instability in the Hillyard Neighborhood. Presented at the PICCE Student Symposium (Spokane, WA)

RESEARCH IN PROGRESS

Wissinger, M. & Teeny, J.D. (2025) Relational Costs of Goal-Directed Listening in Workplace Conversations. In data collection

An initial experiment found that, when in conflict, relational listening goals increased exhaustion and reduced authenticity; a follow-up study is built to test how person–goal fit shapes these effects by varying goal language.

Wissinger, M. (2025) Mapping Interpersonal Appraisals: A Tool for Conflict Reframing and Relational Insight. Tool developed; validation study in progress.

Developed a self-guided relationship appraisal tool that maps conflict reactions across control and responsibility, offering reframing suggestions for support-giving, reflection, and goal-setting.

REPLICATION & ANALYSIS CONTRIBUTIONS

Jazaieri & Rucker (2025). Softening the blow or sharpening the blade: Examining the reputational effects of satire. JEP: General — Acknowledged in publication; led replication & coding validation

Achar, Agrawal, & Lock (2025). From stigma to support: “Black-owned” labels and expertise stereotypes in cannabis and psychedelics markets. Journal of Consumer Research — Developed all analysis code

Reich & Teeny (2025). Does artificial intelligence cause artificial confidence? Generative AI as an emerging social referent. Journal of Personality and Social Psychology — Led replication & coding validation

Teeny & Petty (2025). Reactions to undesired outcomes: Evidence for the opposer's loss effect. Journal of Personality and Social Psychology — Led replication & coding validation

Cheng, Whitson, & Wang (2025). I am, I am not: Strategies to cope with negative group labels. Journal of Experimental Social Psychology — Led replication & coding validation

Spelman, Elnakouri, Kteily, & Finkel (2024). The Opposer's Loss Effect: Reactions to Losing With vs. Without Opposition. IPR Working Paper — Led replication & coding validation

APPLIED EXPERIENCE

SBA Mozilo Fellow

Summer - Fall 2023

Gonzaga University School of Business Administration

Partner Organization: The Northeast Community Center, Spokane WA

Advisor: Tyana Kelley

- Selected to conduct market research and cost analysis to support the Coffee 2 Careers job training initiative for youth experiencing housing instability
- Devised and delivered a workplace readiness training program for disadvantaged women

Marketing Specialist

Summer 2023

Steinaway & Associates, Spokane WA

Advisor: Sherry Steinaway

- Designed and developed client website with analytics-informed navigation, managed social media accounts, and supported assessments, team-building, leadership coaching, and training program development

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Assistant Instructor

Summer 2022

Capitol Debate

- Delivered original public speaking and debate sessions for adolescent and high school students
- From Claim to Impact: Argument structure (claim, warrant, impact)
- Research Like a Pro: Effective research strategies for case building

Undergraduate TA

Fall 2021

Gonzaga University Department of Sociology

- HONS 193: Honors First Year Seminar (Linda Tredennick, Ph.D., & Michael DeLand, Ph.D.)
- Led weekly discussion sections; guided student teams in executing ethnographic field research

Speech and Debate Tutor

Fall 2020-Fall 2024

Wyzant - Self-Employed

- Produced 5+ NSDA decorated top speakers in Lincoln Douglas & Public Forum debate

SERVICE TO THE UNIVERSITY

Student Body President

2022 - 2023

Gonzaga University Honors Program

Advisor: Linda Tredennick, Ph.D.

- Elected to lead a student government team to plan and execute campus-wide events for 300+ students, managing budgets, coordinating fundraising, and overseeing marketing efforts

Sophomore Representative

2021 - 2022

Gonzaga University Honors Program

- Served as liaison between the sophomore class and Honors Program administration; initiated and led community outreach efforts, including launching the annual Honors Formal

Languages: English (native), Spanish (proficient)

Interests: Mindfulness, Media Arts, Basketball, Poetry, Vinyasa Yoga